Grand Knights Message

As we begin the transition back to less restrictive seating requirements during mass, the time has come for some serious recognition for those within the council who worked so tirelessly as escorts and organizers for the cause of parishioner health and safety for almost a year now since the church reopened. Most of the faces that we've seen over and over again as escorts will now resume normal activities and attendance routines for mass, myself included. You have my deepest respect and gratitude for the outstanding effort that you all put into making this huge pile of lemons into lemonade, so to speak. Your willingness to accept the challenge that this situation presented reflected very positively not only on you as individuals, but on our council as a whole.

I know that even I had to hesitate for a moment last Saturday evening when I walked into the baptistery and did not see Walt or Joe standing inside the doors, as they have become a regular fixture there. I have to admit, though, that as great a job as those guys did keeping everyone in line, I'm glad that we will no longer need to be "checked in" at the beginning of mass. But desperate times called for desperate measures, and we all stepped up and met the challenge.

And Ben York, what will he do with all of his free time on the weekend now? I dare say that Alice has probably put together a "honey-do" list as long as her arm given the amount of time that he dedicated to the cause. Just won't be the same without him up in the center aisle, wielding the pool noodle as deftly as a knight with his trusty lance at a jousting match.

Pool noodles. Used to not really think much of them one way or another. Funny how I have developed a sincere dislike for them now, and would be perfectly happy to never see another one for the rest of my days. We can only hope and pray for that to be the case.

God Bless and Vivat Jesus,
Brian Harvey

District Deputy Report

One of the Building Domestic Church series programs is the Scriptural Rosary for the Family.

If you are looking for a way to recenter your family through your faith, consider using this great Knights Of Columbus resource.

In his Apostolic Letter, Rosarium Virginis Mariae (2002), Pope John Paul II exhorted us to pray the Rosary for peace and for the family. His words are significant for us to reflect upon here:

A number of historical circumstances also make a revival of the Rosary quite timely. First of all, the need to implore from God the gift of peace. The Rosary has many times been proposed by my predecessors and myself as a prayer for peace. At the start of a millennium which began with the terrifying attacks of 11 September 2001, a millennium which witnesses every day in numerous parts of the world fresh scenes of bloodshed and violence, to rediscover the Rosary means to immerse oneself in contemplation of the mystery of Christ who "is our peace", since he made "the two of us one, and broke down the dividing wall of hostility" (Ephesians 2:14). Consequently, one cannot recite the Rosary without feeling caught up in a clear commitment to advancing peace, especially in the land of Jesus, still so sorely afflicted and so close to the heart of every Christian.

A similar need for commitment and prayer arises in relation to another critical contemporary issue: the family, the primary cell of society, increasingly menaced by forces of disintegration on both the ideological and practical planes, so as to make us fear for the future of this fundamental and indispensable institution and, with it, for the future of society as a whole. The revival of the Rosary in Christian families, within the context of a broader pastoral ministry to the family, will be an effective aid to countering the devastating effects of this crisis typical of our age.

A custom for those praying the Rosary is to meditate on each of the Mysteries in silence, either before or while they recite the prayers of each decade. This booklet contains collections of verses from the sacred Scriptures, with ten verses given for each decade of the Rosary. It is suggested that these verses be recited aloud, one before each "Hail Mary." The verses given for each decade correspond to the Mystery being recalled, and stress the fidelity and strength of Christ, the Prince of Peace.

Council Meetings

In- Person council meeting and Officers planning meeting are returning in June.

Since the lifting of the COVID restriction, the council will be returning to in-person meetings while maintaining safety protocol.

The next Officer’s Planning session will be held on June 7, 2021, at 7:00 PM in the Simmons Parish Center. All members are encouraged to attend and express their desire for upcoming programs or events.

On June 10, 2021, at 7:00 PM in the Simmons Center, the council will hold its monthly meeting.

The monthly meeting is to conduct the financial business of the council and report on the progress of any programs. It is not where new programs are proposed to the council. Proposed new programs should be brought to the Officers Planning Session for consideration. By sticking to this program review, it will stop wasting the members’ time on a discussion of the pros and cons of an item.

We encourage all members to think of new ways the council can be more visible and still live up to our commitment to Charity, Unity, and Fraternity.

Election of Council Officers

The next council meeting will be for the election of council officers.

The proposed list are:
GK– Brian Harvey
DGK– Charles Cheney
Chancellor– Scott Richter
Warden- John Kosco
Advocate– Jim Duffy
Treasurer– Duane Dudkiewicz
Recorder– Ron Schmidt
Inside Guard– David Kerik

Outside Guard– Dan Sheppard
1 Year Trustee– Jim Milanese
2 Year Trustee– Walter Kulla
3 Year Trustee– John Joyce

The financial Secretary is not an elected position. He is appointed by Supreme for a three - year term. Also, the Chaplin is appointed by the Grand Knight.

Nominations will be accepted from the floor and are encouraged. If you have a desire to serve in any capacity make you wishes known.

Also, there are many opportunities for participation as program director. If you have a strong conviction on a particular issue, this could be your chance to get something done about it.

Passing of a Knight Dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary

George Cascin received his First Degree at SPX on September 20, 1999.

George was always grateful that his mother allowed him to be born. He never knew her, because she gave him up at birth. As he was never adopted, he grew up as an orphan, but he was always grateful to be alive.

In honor of his mother, George paid for the statue of Mary at St Pius X. Some of you remember when Bishop Curlin came to St Pius X to bless and commemorate Mary’s statue as a monument to the unborn.

George never married nor had children, but he was loved as an integral family member by the Denis Boucher family.

George Chascin received his Blessing of the Sick on May 7th and passed away peacefully the next day at Beacon Place Hospice Center in Greensboro.

May his beautiful soul rest in peace. Amen.

Spring is here, I don't know about you, but this time of year seems to energize me. After being cooped up all winter, and this year really being cooped up, I've been able to think of all the things I need to get done. Some of that includes physical repairs around the house, getting the lawn and flowerbeds ready to go, maybe even washing some windows. I've had some estimates for work I need done around the house. Every craftsman has told me their business is booming. So many people have noticed things that need to be done around the house since they've been inside for the better part of a year.

And as you sit around and consider all the things that you need to get updated, let me make a suggestion that may put your mind and your family's mind at ease. We know this year has been unpredictable in many ways, but let's be honest, pandemic or not, life is unpredictable. We can't see what the future will bring, but we can plan for the unexpected. Remember that as a member of the Knights of Columbus I am your partner on your journey to prepare for and face the unpredictable.

Just as we take stock of the physical changes that need to be considered, I'd suggest that you take stock of where you stand protecting your family. The Knights of Columbus has partnered with industry leader Advicent to help us help you. I can use Advicent's state-of-the-art software to provide you with a comprehensive financial needs analysis. With it I can help you take stock of where you are today, where you want to go, and how close you are to achieving your goals. I can help you identify any gaps in your coverage or issues you should address. This will give you a comprehensive look at where you stand. While many other companies charge for this kind of service, the Order has invested in this software to help us agents help our members. This financial need analysis is free of charge as a fraternal benefit of membership.

I feel I have a special bond of brotherhood with all my members and I am committed to helping protect Catholic families...your family...while furthering the vision of Blessed Michael McGivney. Please take time to meet with me and take advantage of this free benefit of membership. May God bless
